1. Scope of Content - Omit Units: 5, 9, 14, 18. - Omit: Period 8 (all writing extension/oral interaction tasks). - Keep & Focus on: - Reading → Periods 1 + 3 - Vocabulary → Periods 2 + 4 - Grammar → Period 5 - Writing → Period 7 → → → → So each unit contributes 6 periods only.	2. *Holidays or Mid-Semester breaks can be accommodated within the Review weeks.

*Here's how the first few lessons might be assigned (adjusted to your earlier timetable generation):

Date	Unit	Focus
9 Sep Tue	Unit 1	Reading Period 1
10 Sep Wed	Unit 1	Vocabulary Period 2
14 Sep Sun	Unit 1	Reading Period 3
15 Sep Mon	Unit 1	Vocabulary Period 4

And so on for Units 3, 4, 6, 7, 8, following the same pattern.

Then, in the final weeks, the extra lessons become opportunities for:

- Integrative projects (e.g. short writing tasks combining vocabulary + grammar)
- Reading for comprehension
- Oral or written review quizzes
- Consolidation of writing skills

*Why These Units Work Well for Weak Learners:

- Thematic Relevance: Topics like animals, crafts, and travel are engaging and accessible.
- Balanced Skill Exposure: Each unit includes targeted reading, vocabulary, grammar, and writing.
- 'Scaffolded Learning': Repeating the same period types (1, 2, 3, 4, 5, 7) helps build routine and confidence.
- Review Weeks: The integration phase helps connect themes and reinforce language skills.
