Name:	Final First Tern	 n Test 2016-	2017
Ministry of ED.& Higher Education Rafah Directorate of Education Name: 1. Listening (2marks) 40 Al Listen to the following conversation then match A with B: 1. Ramy hasn't seen Jack () a lot of climbing for a week for ages 2. Jack was away at school camp () a lot of sailing 3. Jenny did () a lot of sailing 4. Jack did () a lot of sailing 5. Speaking(2 marks) 6. Speaking(2 marks) 7. Speaking(2 marks) 8. Speaking(2 marks) 8. Choose what you would say in the following situation: 1. GPS is a modern technology at its best: (Opinion) 1. Opinion 2. You ask your teacher to repeat the last sentence again. (Request) 8. Choose what you would say in the following situations:-(2 points) 1. Your friend feels very bored, you suggest a. What about going to the cinema? b. You must go anywhere. c. Go to watch the football match. 2. You and someone to tell you the way to the public library, you ask a. It's next to the park. b. Could you tell me the way to the library, please? c. Tell me the way to the library? 3. Reading(8 marks) Read the following text then answer the question below: Tan Dan Fellini from Ontario Fire Service . Many people think firefighters just relaxbetween emergencies. But it in't like that. Wheave a full schedule from the minute westart work at 8:00 am. First, we check the fire engines andall our equipment. We must be sure thateverything is in working condition 'faultyequipment costs lives. Our own 'workingcondition' is just as important. We rain tokeep fit, of course, but we also learn newskills all the time — things like first aid, fireprotection systems and IT. Then there's the training we do together. We train tobecome an efficient, flexible team hatcan do the job and keep each other safein different, often dangerous situations. Wehave to be ready for anything. Then, of course, 'anything' happens. Westop all our practising and preparing undrace to deal with		7	_
Rafah Directorate of Education 2016 / : 2433 Name :	Ţ	-
Name:	Rafah Directorate of Education	In Wall	التاريخ: / / 2016
1. Listening (2marks) 4. Listen to the following conversation then match A with B: 1. Ramy hasn't seen Jack	Name:	THE STREET LAND CO.
A Listen to the following conversation then match A with B: 1. Ramy hasn't seen Jack			7
A Listen to the following conversation then match A with B: 1. Ramy hasn't seen Jack	1. Liste	 ening (2marks)
1. Ramy hasn't seen Jack 2. Jack was away at school camp 3. Jenny idia 4. Jack did 2. Speaking(2 marks) 2. You ask your teacher to repeat the last sentence again. (Request) 2. You ask your teacher to repeat the last sentence again. (Request) 3. Jenny friend feels very bored, you suggest		-	40/
2. Speaking(2 marks) 2. You ask your teacher to repeat the last sentence again. (Request) 3. Janny What would you say in the following situation: 4. Green what you would say in the following situations: 5. You ask your teacher to repeat the last sentence again. (Request) 6. You must you anywhere. 6. Go to watch the football match. 7. You want someone to tell you the way to the public library, you ask			a lot of climbing
3. Jenny did 4. Jack did 2. Speaking(2 marks) 3. Jenny What would you say in the following situation: 3. Jenny What would you say in the following situation: 4. Jenny What would you say in the following situations: 5. You ask your teacher to repeat the last sentence again. (Request) 6. You ask your teacher to repeat the last sentence again. (Request) 7. Jenny What about going to the cinema? 8. You must go anywhere. 9. Go to watch the football match. 2) You want someone to tell you the way to the public library, you ask	•		_
2. Speaking(2 marks) A/Say What would you say in the following situation: 1. GPS is a modern technology at its best: (Opinion) 2. You ask your teacher to repeat the last sentence again. (Request) B/ Choose what you would say in the following situations:-(2 points) 1.) Your friend feels very bored, you suggest	· · · · · · · · · · · · · · · · · · ·	' '
A/Say What would you say in the following situation: 1. GPS is a modern technology at its best: (Opinion) 2. You ask your teacher to repeat the last sentence again. (Request) 1. Your friend feels very bored, you suggest a. What about going to the cinema? b. You must go anywhere. c. Go to watch the football match. 2) You want someone to tell you the way to the public library, you ask a. It's next to the park. b. Could you tell me the way to the library, please? c. Tell me the way to the library? 3.Reading(8 marks) Read the following text then answer the question below: I'm Dan Fellini from Ontario Fire Service . Many people think firefighters just relaxbetween emergencies. But it isn't like that. We have a full schedule from the minute westart work at 8:00 am. First, we check the fire engines and all our equipment. We must be sure thateverything is in working condition: faultyequipment costs lives. Our own 'workingcondition' is just as important. We train tokeep fit, of course, but we also learn newskills all the time — things like first aid, fireprotection systems and IT. Then there 'sthe training we do together. We train tobecome an efficient, flexible team thatcan do the job and keep each other safein different, often dangerous situations. Wehave to be ready for anything. Then, of course, 'anything' happens. Westop all our practising and preparing and arcae to deal with the real thing — the nextemergency call. A - Answer the following questions: (3 points) 1- When does Dan start his work? 2- Why is it important for firefighters to be sure that everything is in working condition? 3- What do firefighters do when they get emergency call ?			a lot of sailing
A/Say What would you say in the following situation: 1. GPS is a modern technology at its best: (Opinion) 2. You ask your teacher to repeat the last sentence again. (Request) 1. Your friend feels very bored, you suggest a. What about going to the cinema? b. You must go anywhere. c. Go to watch the football match. 2) You want someone to tell you the way to the public library, you ask a. It's next to the park. b. Could you tell me the way to the library, please? c. Tell me the way to the library? 3.Reading(8 marks) Read the following text then answer the question below: I'm Dan Fellini from Ontario Fire Service . Many people think firefighters just relaxbetween emergencies. But it isn't like that. We have a full schedule from the minute westart work at 8:00 am. First, we check the fire engines and all our equipment. We must be sure thateverything is in working condition: faultyequipment costs lives. Our own 'workingcondition' is just as important. We train tokeep fit, of course, but we also learn newskills all the time — things like first aid, fireprotection systems and IT. Then there 'sthe training we do together. We train tobecome an efficient, flexible team thatcan do the job and keep each other safein different, often dangerous situations. Wehave to be ready for anything. Then, of course, 'anything' happens. Westop all our practising and preparing and arcace to deal with the real thing — the nextemergency call. A - Answer the following questions: (3 points) 1- When does Dan start his work? 2- Why is it important for firefighters to be sure that everything is in working condition? 3- What do firefighters do when they get emergency call ?
1. GPS is a modern technology at its best: (Opinion) 2. You ask your teacher to repeat the last sentence again. (Request) Bl Choose what you would say in the following situations:-(2 points) 1) Your friend feels very borred, you suggest a. What about going to the cinema? b. You must go anywhere. c. Go to watch the football match. 2) You want someone to tell you the way to the public library, you ask a. It's next to the park. b. Could you tell me the way to the library, please? c. Tell me the way to the library? 3.Reading(8 marks) Read the following text then answer the question below: I'm Dan Fellini from Ontario Fire Service . Many people think firefighters just relaxbetween emergencies. But it isn't like that. We have a full schedule from the minute westart work at 8:00 am. First, we check the fire engines and all our equipment. We must be sure thateverything is in working condition: faultyequipment costs lives. Our own 'workingcondition' is just as important. We train tokeep fit, of course, but we also learn newskills all the time — things like first aid, fireprotection systems and IT. Then there'sthe training we do together. We train tobecome an efficient, flexible team thatcan do the job and keep each other safein different, often dangerous situations. Wehave to be ready for anything. Then, of course, 'anything' happens. Westop all our practising and preparing andrace to deal with the real thing — the nextemergency call. A - Answer the following questions: (3 points) 1. When does Dan start his work? 2. Why is it important for firefighters to be sure that everything is in working condition? 3. What do firefighters do when they get emergency call?	2. Spea	aking(2 marks)
1. GPS is a modern technology at its best: (Opinion) 2. You ask your teacher to repeat the last sentence again. (Request) Bl Choose what you would say in the following situations:-(2 points) 1) Your friend feels very bored, you suggest a. What about going to the cinema? b. You must go anywhere. c. Go to watch the football match. 2) You want someone to tell you the way to the public library, you ask a. It's next to the park. b. Could you tell me the way to the library, please? c. Tell me the way to the library? 3.Reading(8 marks) Read the following text then answer the question below: I'm Dan Fellini from Ontario Fire Service . Many people think firefighters just relaxbetween emergencies. But it isn't like that. We have a full schedule from the minute westart work at 8:00 am.First, we check the fire engines andall our equipment. We must be sure thateverything is in working condition: faultyequipment costs lives. Our own 'workingcondition' is just as important. We train tokeep fit, of course, but we also learn newskills all the time — things like first aid, fireprotection systems and IT. Then there'sthe training we do together. We train tobecome an efficient, flexible team thatcan do the job and keep each other safein different, often dangerous situations. Wehave to be ready for anything. Then, of course, 'anything' happens. Westop all our practising and preparing andrace to deal with the real thing — the nextemergency call. A - Answer the following questions: (3 points) 1. When does Dan start his work? 2. Why is it important for firefighters to be sure that everything is in working condition? 3. What do firefighters do when they get emergency call?		.•
2. You ask your teacher to repeat the last sentence again. (Request) B/ Choose what you would say in the following situations:-(2 points) 1) Your friend feels very bored, you suggest a. What about going to the cinema? b. You must go anywhere. c. Go to watch the football match. 2) You want someone to tell you the way to the public library, you ask a. It's next to the park. b. Could you tell me the way to the library, please? c. Tell me the way to the library? 3.Reading(8 marks) Read the following text then answer the question below: I'm Dan Fellini from Ontario Fire Service . Many people think firefighters just relaxbetween emergencies. But it isn't like that. Wehave a full schedule from the minute westart work at 8:00 am. First, we check the fire engines andall our equipment. We must be sure thateverything is in working condition: faultyequipment costs lives. Our own 'workingcondition' is just as important. We train tokeep fit, of course, but we also learn newskills all the time — things like first aid, fireprotection systems and IT. Then there'sthe training we do together. We train tobecome an efficient, flexible team thatcan do the job and keep each other safein different, often dangerous situations. Wehave to be ready for anything. Then, of course, 'anything' happens. Westop all our practising and preparing andrace to deal with the real thing — the nextemergency call. A - Answer the following questions: (3 points) 1- When does Dan start his work? 2- Why is it important for firefighters to be sure that everything is in working condition? 3- What do firefighters do when they get emergency call?
1) Your friend feels very bored, you suggest	1. GPS is a modern technology at its best:	Jpinion)
1) Your friend feels very bored, you suggest	2 You ask your teacher to repeat the last sentence	e again (Reque	est)
a. What about going to the cinema? b. You must go anywhere. c. Go to watch the football match. 2) You want someone to tell you the way to the public library, you ask	2. Tot ask your teacher to repeat the last sentene	e again. (reque	, , , , , , , , , , , , , , , , , , , ,
a. What about going to the cinema? b. You must go anywhere. c. Go to watch the football match. 2) You want someone to tell you the way to the public library, you ask
a. What about going to the cinema? b. You must go anywhere. c. Go to watch the football match. 2) You want someone to tell you the way to the public library, you ask	B/ Choose what you would say in the following	situations :- (2	points)
a. What about going to the cinema? b. You must go anywhere. c. Go to watch the football match. 2) You want someone to tell you the way to the public library, you ask		_	,
b. You must go anywhere. c. Go to watch the football match. 2) You want someone to tell you the way to the public library, you ask a. It's next to the park. b. Could you tell me the way to the library, please? c. Tell me the way to the library? 3.Reading(8 marks) Read the following text then answer the question below: I'm Dan Fellini from Ontario Fire Service . Many people think firefighters just relaxbetween emergencies. But it isn't like that. We have a full schedule from the minute westart work at 8:00 am. First, we check the fire engines andall our equipment. We must be sure thateverything is in working condition: faultyequipment costs lives. Our own 'workingcondition' is just as important. We train tokeep fit, of course, but we also learn newskills all the time – things like first aid, fireprotection systems and IT. Then there's the training we do together. We train tobecome an efficient, flexible team thatcan do the job and keep each other safein different, often dangerous situations. Wehave to be ready for anything. Then, of course, 'anything' happens. Westop all our practising and preparing andrace to deal with the real thing – the nextemergency call. A - Answer the following questions: (3 points) 1- When does Dan start his work? 2- Why is it important for firefighters to be sure that everything is in working condition? 3- What do firefighters do when they get emergency call?	, , , , , , , , , , , , , , , , , , , ,
c. Go to watch the football match. 2) You want someone to tell you the way to the public library, you ask
2) You want someone to tell you the way to the public library, you ask		tch
a. It's next to the park. b. Could you tell me the way to the library, please? c. Tell me the way to the library? 3.Reading(8 marks) Read the following text then answer the question below: I'm Dan Fellini from Ontario Fire Service . Many people think firefighters just relaxbetween emergencies. But it isn't like that. We have a full schedule from the minute westart work at 8:00 am. First, we check the fire engines and all our equipment. We must be sure thateverything is in working condition: faultyequipment costs lives. Our own 'workingcondition' is just as important. We train tokeep fit, of course, but we also learn newskills all the time — things like first aid, fireprotection systems and IT. Then there's the training we do together. We train tobecome an efficient, flexible team that can do the job and keep each other safein different, often dangerous situations. We have to be ready for anything. Then, of course, 'anything' happens. Westop all our practising and preparing andrace to deal with the real thing — the nextemergency call. A - Answer the following questions: (3 points) 1- When does Dan start his work? 2- Why is it important for firefighters to be sure that everything is in working condition? 3- What do firefighters do when they get emergency call?			rary you ack
b. Could you tell me the way to the library, please? c. Tell me the way to the library? 3.Reading(8 marks) Read the following text then answer the question below: I'm Dan Fellini from Ontario Fire Service . Many people think firefighters just relaxbetween emergencies. But it isn't like that. We have a full schedule from the minute westart work at 8:00 am. First, we check the fire engines and all our equipment. We must be sure thateverything is in working condition: faultyequipment costs lives. Our own 'working condition' is just as important. We train tokeep fit, of course, but we also learn newskills all the time — things like first aid, fireprotection systems and IT. Then there'sthe training we do together. We train tobecome an efficient, flexible team thatcan do the job and keep each other safein different, often dangerous situations. We have to be ready for anything. Then, of course, 'anything' happens. Westop all our practising and preparing andrace to deal with the real thing — the nextemergency call. A - Answer the following questions: (3 points) 1- When does Dan start his work? 2- Why is it important for firefighters to be sure that everything is in working condition? 3- What do firefighters do when they get emergency call?		to the public in	aury, you usix
3.Reading(8 marks) Read the following text then answer the question below: I'm Dan Fellini from Ontario Fire Service . Many people think firefighters just relaxbetween emergencies. But it isn't like that. We have a full schedule from the minute westart work at 8:00 am. First, we check the fire engines and all our equipment. We must be sure thateverything is in working condition: faultyequipment costs lives. Our own 'workingcondition' is just as important. We train tokeep fit, of course, but we also learn newskills all the time – things like first aid, fireprotection systems and IT. Then there'sthe training we do together. We train tobecome an efficient, flexible team thatcan do the job and keep each other safein different, often dangerous situations. Wehave to be ready for anything. Then, of course, 'anything' happens. Westop all our practising and preparing andrace to deal with the real thing – the nextemergency call. A - Answer the following questions: (3 points) 1- When does Dan start his work? 2- Why is it important for firefighters to be sure that everything is in working condition? 3- What do firefighters do when they get emergency call?
3.Reading(8 marks) Read the following text then answer the question below: I'm Dan Fellini from Ontario Fire Service . Many people think firefighters just relaxbetween emergencies. But it isn't like that. We have a full schedule from the minute westart work at 8:00 am. First, we check the fire engines and all our equipment. We must be sure thateverything is in working condition: faultyequipment costs lives. Our own 'workingcondition' is just as important. We train tokeep fit, of course, but we also learn newskills all the time – things like first aid, fireprotection systems and IT. Then there's the training we do together. We train tobecome an efficient, flexible team thatcan do the job and keep each other safein different, often dangerous situations. Wehave to be ready for anything. Then, of course, 'anything' happens. Westop all our practising and preparing andrace to deal with the real thing – the nextemergency call. A - Answer the following questions: (3 points) 1- When does Dan start his work? 2- Why is it important for firefighters to be sure that everything is in working condition? 3- What do firefighters do when they get emergency call?	· · · · · · · · · · · · · · · · · · ·		use:
Read the following text then answer the question below: I'm Dan Fellini from Ontario Fire Service . Many people think firefighters just relaxbetween emergencies. But it isn't like that. Wehave a full schedule from the minute westart work at 8:00 am.First, we check the fire engines and all our equipment. We must be sure thateverything is in working condition: faultyequipment costs lives. Our own 'workingcondition' is just as important. We train tokeep fit, of course, but we also learn newskills all the time – things like first aid, fireprotection systems and IT. Then there'sthe training we do together. We train tobecome an efficient, flexible team thatcan do the job and keep each other safein different, often dangerous situations. Wehave to be ready for anything. Then, of course, 'anything' happens. Westop all our practising and preparing andrace to deal with the real thing – the nextemergency call. A - Answer the following questions: (3 points) 1- When does Dan start his work? 2- Why is it important for firefighters to be sure that everything is in working condition? 3- What do firefighters do when they get emergency call?		y .
I'm Dan Fellini from Ontario Fire Service . Many people think firefighters just relaxbetween emergencies. But it isn't like that. We have a full schedule from the minute westart work at 8:00 am. First, we check the fire engines and all our equipment. We must be sure that everything is in working condition: faulty equipment costs lives. Our own 'working condition' is just as important. We train tokeep fit, of course, but we also learn newskills all the time – things like first aid, fireprotection systems and IT. Then there's the training we do together. We train to become an efficient, flexible team that can do the job and keep each other safein different, often dangerous situations. We have to be ready for anything. Then, of course, 'anything' happens. We stop all our practising and preparing andrace to deal with the real thing – the nextemergency call. A - Answer the following questions: (3 points) 1- When does Dan start his work? 2- Why is it important for firefighters to be sure that everything is in working condition? 3- What do firefighters do when they get emergency call?	3.Res	ading(8 marks)	1
I'm Dan Fellini from Ontario Fire Service . Many people think firefighters just relaxbetween emergencies. But it isn't like that. We have a full schedule from the minute westart work at 8:00 am. First, we check the fire engines and all our equipment. We must be sure that everything is in working condition: faulty equipment costs lives. Our own 'working condition' is just as important. We train tokeep fit, of course, but we also learn newskills all the time – things like first aid, fireprotection systems and IT. Then there's the training we do together. We train to become an efficient, flexible team that can do the job and keep each other safein different, often dangerous situations. We have to be ready for anything. Then, of course, 'anything' happens. We stop all our practising and preparing andrace to deal with the real thing – the nextemergency call. A - Answer the following questions: (3 points) 1- When does Dan start his work? 2- Why is it important for firefighters to be sure that everything is in working condition? 3- What do firefighters do when they get emergency call?	Desirable Collection of Address of the control of	.
emergencies. But it isn't like that. We have a full schedule from the minute westart work at 8:00 am. First, we check the fire engines and all our equipment. We must be sure that everything is in working condition: faulty equipment costs lives. Our own 'working condition' is just as important. We train tokeep fit, of course, but we also learn newskills all the time – things like first aid, fire protection systems and IT. Then there's the training we do together. We train to become an efficient, flexible team that can do the job and keep each other safein different, often dangerous situations. We have to be ready for anything. Then, of course, 'anything' happens. We stop all our practising and preparing and and accepted to deal with the real thing – the next emergency call. A - Answer the following questions: (3 points) 1- When does Dan start his work? 2- Why is it important for fire fighters to be sure that everything is in working condition? 3- What do fire fighters do when they get emergency call?
am.First, we check the fire engines and all our equipment. We must be sure that everything is in working condition: faulty equipment costs lives. Our own 'working condition' is just as important. We train tokeep fit, of course, but we also learn newskills all the time – things like first aid, fireprotection systems and IT. Then there's the training we do together. We train to become an efficient, flexible team that can do the job and keep each other safein different, often dangerous situations. We have to be ready for anything. Then, of course, 'anything' happens. We stop all our practising and preparing andrace to deal with the real thing – the nextemergency call. A - Answer the following questions: (3 points) 1- When does Dan start his work? 2- Why is it important for firefighters to be sure that everything is in working condition? 3- What do firefighters do when they get emergency call?			· · working condition: faultyequipment costs lives. Our own 'workingcondition' is just as important. We train tokeep fit, of course, but we also learn newskills all the time – things like first aid, fireprotection systems and IT. Then there'sthe training we do together. We train tobecome an efficient, flexible team thatcan do the job and keep each other safein different, often dangerous situations. Wehave to be ready for anything. Then, of course, 'anything' happens. Westop all our practising and preparing andrace to deal with the real thing – the nextemergency call. A - Answer the following questions: (3 points) 1- When does Dan start his work? 2- Why is it important for firefighters to be sure that everything is in working condition? 3- What do firefighters do when they get emergency call?
train tokeep fit, of course, but we also learn newskills all the time – things like first aid, fireprotection systems and IT. Then there's the training we do together. We train to become an efficient, flexible team that can do the job and keep each other safein different, often dangerous situations. We have to be ready for anything. Then, of course, 'anything' happens. We stop all our practising and preparing andrace to deal with the real thing – the nextemergency call. A - Answer the following questions: (3 points) 1- When does Dan start his work? 2- Why is it important for firefighters to be sure that everything is in working condition? 3- What do firefighters do when they get emergency call?			• systems and IT. Then there's the training we do together. We train to become an efficient, flexible team that can do the job and keep each other safein different, often dangerous situations. We have to be ready for anything. Then, of course, 'anything' happens. We stop all our practising and preparing andrace to deal with the real thing – the nextemergency call. A - Answer the following questions: (3 points) 1- When does Dan start his work? 2- Why is it important for firefighters to be sure that everything is in working condition? 3- What do firefighters do when they get emergency call?
thatcan do the job and keep each other safein different, often dangerous situations. Wehave to be ready for anything. Then, of course, 'anything' happens. Westop all our practising and preparing andrace to deal with the real thing – the nextemergency call. A - Answer the following questions: (3 points) 1- When does Dan start his work? 2- Why is it important for firefighters to be sure that everything is in working condition? 3- What do firefighters do when they get emergency call?
ready for anything. Then, of course, 'anything' happens. Westop all our practising and preparing andrace to deal with the real thing – the nextemergency call. A - Answer the following questions: (3 points) 1- When does Dan start his work? 2- Why is it important for firefighters to be sure that everything is in working condition? 3- What do firefighters do when they get emergency call?
andrace to deal with the real thing – the nextemergency call. A - Answer the following questions: (3 points) 1- When does Dan start his work? 2- Why is it important for firefighters to be sure that everything is in working condition? 3- What do firefighters do when they get emergency call?	thatcan do the job and keep each other safein	different, often	dangerous situations. Wehave to be
A - Answer the following questions: (3 points) 1- When does Dan start his work? 2- Why is it important for firefighters to be sure that everything is in working condition? 3- What do firefighters do when they get emergency call?	ready for anything. Then, of course, 'anything'	happens. West	op all our practising and preparing
1- When does Dan start his work? 2- Why is it important for firefighters to be sure that everything is in working condition? 3- What do firefighters do when they get emergency call?	andrace to deal with the real thing – the nextemer	rgency call.
2- Why is it important for firefighters to be sure that everything is in working condition? 3- What do firefighters do when they get emergency call?	A - Answer the following questions: (3 points)	)
2- Why is it important for firefighters to be sure that everything is in working condition? 3- What do firefighters do when they get emergency call?	1- When does Dan start his work?
3- What do firefighters do when they get emergency call?
			•
		•
- 1-اقلب الصفحة

			g statements:(1point)
		•	ghters learn
			to the following statements: (1 point)
•			en emergencies without doing anything important. () part of being a firefighter. ()
•			ed pronouns refer to: (1point)
E. Find in the tex
			s
			ths : 2. safe :
11			4. Vocabulary(7 marks)
A. Complete the	sent	ence	s with words from the box:(2.5points)
		dist	trict –temperature - scout – clue – approached
1 The			has fallen to 10^{0} C. There's ice on the lake now.
			rillage, we could hear the sound of music
			first up a hill to find the prize.
			is famous for producing excellent fruit.
			, you must wear a special uniform.
•	,		s by using the correct phrasal verb from the box :(1.5 points)
	301111
		_	ıt on - put up - take over
1. I		a	photo of my father on the wall.
2. Ahmed is go	ing t	to	as assistant when Sami leaves .
3. It's too cold	outsi	de ,.	your coat
			s with the opposites of the words in brackets : (1points)
1- All experiments we did in the school lab were (success)
			ong distance, he is (lazy)
C. Match the word with its suitable definition : (2points)
1. treasure	()	To give food to somebody or something.
2. examine	()	A box of gold and silver.
3. Feed	()	Technology which limits your exact position
4. Gps	()	Look carefully at something to determine their nature or condition
1- My father l2- Bangladesh the world.3- Tomorrow4- Dad (flies	nas j n is t is a – is	ust (he vi	5. Language(8 marks) swer from a, b or c: (4points) (buys – bought – buying) a new car. ictim of (dangerously-more dangerous-the most dangerous) disasters in day, so you (don't have to – mustn't – have to) get up early. ig – flying) to Jeddah next month.
			ain. Use the words in brackets: (4points)
1- It's good to study hard. (should)
2- I have been living in Rafah for ten years . (How long?)
	••••	••••	- 2 - اقلب الصفحة □ - 2 - اقلب الصفحة □ - 3 - اقلب الصفحة
3- They have not s	seen	each	n other since Saturday . (for)

4- Stop! It's too dangerous to go outside in this storm. (not enough)
Around the World in Eighty Days (6 marks)
A. Answer the following questions: (1.5points)1. What did Fogg decide to do at the Reform Club?
2. Why did the priests attack Passpartout at the temple?
3. How did Fogg manage to keep himself and Passpartout out of prison?
B.Tick the following ✓ True or × False: (1 point)
1. Passepartoutsaved Aouda from burning alive.()
2. The General Grant was a slow, old ship. ()
C. Complete: (1 points) 1. Detective Fix couldn't arrest MrFogg because he didn't have 2.To complete his journey to Calcutta, Fogg bought
D. Make corrections (two per sentence): (1 point)
1. Fix and captain Bunsby were both missing Passpartout `.
E. Read the following quotations then answer the questions below: (1.5points)
' The religions of India are protected by law '
1. Who said this? To whom? to
2. What should any visitor do before entering any Indian Temple?
Writing(7marks)
Write the short forms. (1 point) 1.I am 2 cannot 2 Write the full form of the underlined words. (1 point)
1. Mark's just scored.
2. I'd love to buy one, but they're expensive
Write a short paragraph about your daily life : (5 points)
1- Say what time you get up / go to school .2- Your leisure time activities / homework .
3- Things you are allowed and not allowed to do (why).
3 - انتهت الأسئلة - Good Luck

نسخة واحدة للمعلم فقط

Listening text

Listen carefully then answer the questions:

Rami: I haven't seen you for ages!

Jack:Oh, that's partly because we were away at school camp for a week.

Rami: What was that like? Jack:It was really good.

Rami: What did you do there?

Jack: Jenny did a lot of sailing and I did a lot of climbing. Rami: Nice. But what have you been doing since then?

Jack: I've been training really hard for a place in City's junior team.

Rami: Wow! Have you been training every day?

Jack:Well, almost every day.